

Company Vehicle Magazine

Company Vehicle reaches key people in fleet buying and management and presents information to them in a concise, business like manner. It's a magazine for business executives managing a vehicle fleet.

Readers are the executives responsible for managing the company's fleet. In most companies this is a senior decision maker, typically the General Manager or Financial Controller. Company Vehicle reaches the operators of a large pool of existing vehicles who need parts, repairs and services.

The magazine covers a range of topics of interest to the company buyer and manager. It includes news of interest to fleet managers including model changes, industry appointments and legislation. There are articles on new models, road tests and reviews of cars and vans.

Typical readers are; Chairperson, MD, CEO, Director, Financial Controllers, Fleet Managers and Other Management.
