Freelotto.com Sponsorship Email

Freelotto is a million dollar daily sweepstakes that operates like a lottery. Participants register only once to play up to three times per day. Listed as one of the worlds top 50 websites by both MediaMetrix and PC Data Online, Freelotto is a the most popular internet sweepstakes games.

Freelotto is a fun filled web adventure, the more you jplay the more you win, and there are tens of thousands of winners every day. Freelotto players have an average household income of $66,000 and an average age of 42. 50% play from work.

All Freelotto jackpots are insured through American International Group and all drawings are observed by a representative of KPMG. Players are notified of freelotto results via a personalised email each day. There are over 8 million players worldwide with an estimated 50,000 new players being added daily. There are two ways for advertisers to win with the Freelotto sponsorship; either send a broadcast endorsed message to all players or target segment of the database.

Approximately 75% of the audience is male and the balance female.
