Neo-Tech International

These highly responsive English language consumers have purchased or inquired about books and CD's for self improvement. Topics include how to acquire money, power, romantic love, vibrant health and good life.

They are searching for ways to give themselves an advantage over others; not only financially but also in personal relationships, business transactions and gambling. The active buyers continue to seek life answers by purchasing additional Neo-Tech high ticket items. These consumers are receptive to merchandise, sweepstakes, contest, puzzles, lotteries, astrology and good luck offers.

Names also available in other countries including German speaking, French speaking, and Japan. Reciprocation may be required.
