IMP Continuity Buyers

IMP is the world's number one direct continuity publisher, with over 11 products currently available in Australia and New Zealand to provide educational, creative and inspiring ideas in popular subject areas like gardening, cooking, music and children's education.

2 Million Australians have enjoyed collecting IMP's card and book offers in the last 8 years. They are recruited with a great introductory offer via direct response media such as inserts, direct mail, internet and outbound telemarketing. Each series is sold on a continuous system so all customers are proven mail order multi buyers.

Product categories are;

Gardening Made Easy;

This series has been created to provide collectors with the inspiration and knowledge to create the garden of their dreams. Customers are either young females who are making the most of their home on a budget or older married couples, with middle income that own their own home. They have a strong interest in home base hobbies, nature, wildlife and conservation.

Discovering Wildlife;

The series is divided into 10 categories which explain everything you need to know about how animals live, eat, hunt, raise their young and who their allies and enemies are. Collectors tend to be families with children aged 6-12 years old and adults with an interest in animals, nature, conservation and the environment.

1001 Recipes for Pan or Wok;

The collection contains both traditional and innovative recipes for everyday meals and special occasions, from across the globe. Each recipe is simple, easy, quick and fresh. Collectors tend to be women aged 24-39 and 50+ who are open to new ideas and want a well balanced diet.

At Home With Your PC;

This unique series is an easy to use tutorial aimed at improving computer skills. It combines a CD ROM with easy to follow skills across 900 topics. Collectors are typically older couples that have limited experience and younger couple with school age children who want to teach their children how to use a PC for internet access and games.

Classic Composer;

This Collection is made up of 60 of the world's greater composers. Each CD contains over an hour of music, a CD book packed with fascinating facts, colour illustrations and background information. Collectors are older classical music lovers, predominantly males aged 50+

Quick, Light & Delicious;

The series contains a multitude of hints and tips on nutrition and healthy eating. It's a collection of 1000 easy to make main dishes, light snacks and desserts. Collectors are young families and older women wanting new ideas for the kitchen.

Easy Everyday Cooking;

This series makes preparing inexpensive meals a joy. All meals are simple, fuss free and easy to prepare. Collectors tend to be mums wanting to expand their cooking expertise whilst adding variety to the family's diet.
